TUCSON NEWS.

VOL. 4. TUCSON, PIMA COUNTY, ARIZONA, JULY 3, 1897. No. 66.

BRIEF ITEMS.

County Treasurer Hoff's new buff paper record books are beauties.

The board of supervisors will sit as a board of equalization from July 1st to 20.

U. S. Marshal Wm. Griffith will assume the duties of his office here July 1.

The final account of John Dessart, administrator of the estate of L. Paul Covalli was filed in the probate court Tuesday.

Work is progressing rapidly on A. V. Grosetta's new opera house. The brick walls are up several feet and are being substantially built.

Dr. Annie Wilder lectured in the court plaza on Monday evening on political issues, the lecture was a success, showing the giver was well versed with the subject.

Will J. Harris of Isleta, Texas, is a visitor in Tucson. Mr. Harris is well known to old timers, he having held numerous government positions in the territory.

Rumor takes the rounds and has it that one of Tucson's popular lawyers, who left for Santa Fe, N. M., and the City of Mexico, will not return alone—Frank all success to you.

Leroy Little and Miss Laura Manning both of Crittenden, and William Cherry of Disbee and Miss Elsie Stewart of Tucson, were granted licenses to wed by Deputy Probate Clerk Purcell this week.

From Cattle Inspector Frank L. Proctor, we learn that there has been a total of 31,977 head of cattle shipped from Tucson since January 1, more than double the number ever before shipped in one season from this point.—Star.

Now that the new judges are appointed we are afraid we will lose our old friend and joker, Col. Jack Halbert, unless Judge Davis should arrive in Tucson and find out his popularity, then we would have hopes of his retention.

Charles Allen, having returned from California, went out to the Old Glory mine yesterday to resume his duties as assayer. The remodeling and enlargement of the mill being about completed and work to be resumed to the full extent of its increased capacity.—Star.

In the district court, the cases of Pima county, brought by the good government club vs. C. F. Schumacher, M. G. Samaniego and Thomas Bullock, as the board of supervisors and J. S. Wood, Chas. Webber, C. E. Wood and Sylvester Purcell, were all continued until the September term.

Mrs. T. N. Marsteller, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Parnas, came in from Minas Prietas yesterday to join her mother and Mrs. A. W. Gregory, who will leave on Friday morning for Los Angeles and Santa Monica, where they expect to remain for about two months enjoying the seaside climate.—Citizen.

County Assessor Levin expects to get through with his assessment rolls tomorrow and will begin checking up the work on Monday. The rolls will be ready to submit to the Board of Equalization at their meeting on July 1st. Mr. Levin stated today that he thinks the total valuation this year will foot up to over $150,000 more than last year.—Citizen.

Petitions for three new public schools in Pima county, one at Sopari, one at Silver Hill, (Wm. Clark's) and one at Crater & Fraker ranch, will be heard by the board of supervisors at their quarterly meeting July 6th. As Pima county schools are in the best condition of any in the territory, it is hoped these can make suitable showing with the county fathers to cause their establishment.

A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Gertrude McLeary at her home last evening, it being the occasion of her 16th birthday. A large number of her young friends were in attendance and a thorough good time was enjoyed by all. The house was very prettily decorated in honor of the event. Dancing was indulged in, after which refreshments were served, and the guests departed at a late hour wishing the young lady many happy birthdays.—Citizen June 28.

Tucson Boy Honored.

The following letter was received by Burt Orndorff of this city yesterday, which explain itself. The Citizen join his numerous friends in hearty congratulations for his good fortune in securing the appointment. He is a young man of excellent character and will prove worthy of the prize: House of Representatives, U. S., Washington, D. C., June 22, '97.

Dear Burt:—I have this day appointed you a cadet at West Point, and I wish you to remember that you obtained this coveted prize largely through the high appreciation your neighbors had of your character and sterling worth. Preserve that character at all hazards, you may have a great chance to make a name and I hope and believe you will do it. You will pay all debts of gratitude to me, if you prove worthy of Arizona; and by exercise of industry and cultivation of lofty ambition justify the pride your good mother has in you.

Cordially your good friend.

(Signed) MARCUS A. SMITH.—Citizen.

Everybody in Tucson are glad to hear of Burt Orndorff's good fortune in being appointed as cadet to West Point. Burt is a first class young man and well deserves the honor.
